WHO I AM IN A FEW WORDS:

When I was 13 years old my father gave me a camera as a gift, since then I've never stop to watch the world through a loop. I start to work in filmmaking at the end of 1990s, when digital video appeared. In the early 2000s I become a video activist, in the same period I've the lucky chance to meet Alberto Grifi and to work with him. His film "Anna" inspired all my artistic vision. In 2003 I start to make documentaries and I realize how I like going deeper throw reality and into myself to tell stories of human beings.

I like also travel, give Thai Yoga massage and play guitar.

OVER THE PAST YEARS I PRODUCED MANY FILMS, INCLUDING:

"SIAMO FATTI COSÌ" AA. vv. (50' - 2004). A documentary on the drug prohibition with the participation of Roberto "Freak" Antoni. Distributed by Manifesto books. I take care of the all aspects of realization.

"HEROES AND HEROINES" (50' - 2011) by Danilo Monte e Filippo Papini. A day with the street children of Kathmandu. I am the director, the cinematographer and the editor. Winner of the Italia.doc SalinaDocFest Award 2011. <http://goo.gl/tQOzv0>

"EIGHT STITCHES" (55'- 2014) by Danilo Monte. A documentary about Timothy Ormezzano, one of the victims of the G8 in Genoa in 2001. A direct and sincere dialogue between two friends and between a father and son, to heal the disappointment of a whole generation. I am the director and the editor. "MEMORIES, ON THE ROAD TO AUSCHWITZ" (76'- 2014) by Danilo Monte. A journey with my brother: "Soon you'll be 30 years old and for your birthday I want to give you a trip to the place where you've always wished to go ever: Auschwitz. A journey in our memories to start talking again". Winner of the Avanti Award at 32 Torino Film Festival and the Award "Best feature film" at the Festival of the mental health of Rome in 2015. I am the director and the editor. www.danimonte.com/memorie
